CAUGHT IN ILLINOIS

R. L. Derrington Arrested in East St. Louis Today.

Alleged to Have Secured Nearly $400 From Two Persons Here.

OFFICERS LEAVE AFTER HIM

A telegram was received by Captain Henry Bailey this morning from East St. Louis stating that R. Lee Derrington was under arrest there on charges from Paducah, and at police headquarters it was learned that there are two charges here against him, one a warrant sworn out by Mr. Charles Robertson, of G. W. Robertson & Son, ice dealers, and the other a charge preferred by Mr. James Glanzer, the liveryman, both for grand larceny.

Derrington was in this section for quite a while as a mule buyer for a firm that furnished animals to the British government during the floor war. It is claimed that some time ago he went to Mr. Robertson and claiming to be working for a certain firm, secured $180.

It is charged that about February 10 last he secured over $200 from Mr. James Glanzer by claiming that he had bought two fine saddle horses in the county for a big East St. Louis firm, and the money had not arrived with which to pay for them. He was then, it is alleged, not working for the firm he claimed to represent.

Officer T. J. Moore left last night at 6 o'clock for East St. Louis in anticipation of Derrington's arrest, and if the latter consents to return without a requisition will bring him back. Otherwise he will return and await requisition papers.

Derrington telegraphed today, according to the police, that he owed only $200, and wanted to know if he paid it, if he would be released. This was not satisfactory to the police, who will prosecute him if they can get him back here.

WOULD NOT SING FOR HIM.

WHITE CHOIR BOYS IN HOBOKEN DECLINE A DYING NEGRO'S WISHES.

Hoboken, N. J., June 2.—Richard Smith, the only negro choir boy of the Holy Innocent Episcopal church here, died today, aged 16 years. The funeral will take place from the Holy Innocent church on Wednesday, but despite the boy's dying wish, the choir of which he was a member will take no part, as it struck recently owing to a disagreement with the Rev. Father Magill, the pastor. The dead boy's parents made a pitiful appeal to the members of the choir today to sing at their son's funeral, but they refused.

HOT TIME EXPECTED

REPORTED CHARGES WILL BE PREFERRED AGAINST OFFICIAL.

It is understood that the board of education meeting tonight will be a hot one, and that charges will be preferred against a prominent official. It is also said there will be a number of citizens at the meeting.

Mr. J. W. Kirkpatrick of Ripley, Tenn., was in the city today.

THE TORNADO'S FURY

In Less Than Two Minutes 100 Were Dead.

The Property Loss Will Probably Exceed $300,000 in That Part of Georgia.

DEATH LIST IS SWELLING

Gainesville, Ga., June 2.—Within the space of two minutes a tornado dealt death and destruction to the city of Gainesville and environs killing at least 100 people, wounding 150 more, and leveling 100 cottages to the ground and tearing two stories off of the factory of the Gainesville cotton mill. Of the killed probably two-thirds were women and children, who were operators in the cotton mills.

The storm came from the south out of almost a clear sky.

With a terrible crash the two upper stories of the building were swept away, leaving 32 operators dead in the ruins.

The cyclone then swept around to the suburbs of New Holland, two miles away and probably 100 cottages standing nearby, occupied by operators, who were employed in the mills, were completely demolished, killing 33 people. These were mostly women and children, as the heads of the families were nearly all in the factory at work.

The store of Joseph Logan, near Gainesville cotton mills, was crushed to ruins by the wind, and eight men who had taken refuge in it were instantly killed.

The Jones general store met a similar fate, and in the ruins one man and one woman were crushed to death. The woman was Mrs. Jones, the wife of the proprietor.

Reports from White Sulphur, seven miles from Gainesville, are to the effect that the storm struck there with terrific force, killing a dozen people.

Dr. Smith, city physician, Gainesville, says he has visited one hundred wounded, and has personal knowledge of one hundred dead.

The property loss at the Facot mill occasioned by the destruction of the cottages and outbuildings is estimated at $75,000, and to Gainesville cotton mills are damaged to the extent of $40,000.

The total loss by the storm is $300,000.

The bodies of most of the dead in the cotton mills were fearfully torn and mangled; the skulls of many of them were crushed and the limbs broken. Some were torn and crushed about the abdomen, with the viscera visibly protruding. The local physicians who gave first aid to the injured say the sights were horrible beyond description. The death list is expected to be of much greater magnitude as nearly thirty are believed to be hurt beyond hope of recovery.

THE BATH UNHEALTHY

AGED MAN GIVES EXPERT TESTIMONY ACROSS THE POND.

Frankfort, June 2.—In the nearby health resort, Bornheim, the question whether to establish a public bath or not was before the municipal council and chances for the adoption of the improvement were good until one of the most respected and venerable citizens got up and made the following speech: "Gentlemen, I am five-and-seventy years old, was always in good health and never paid a cent to the doctors, yet in all my long life I never took a bath. Hence I say baths are unnecessary and, judging from the conditions of some of the city folks that come here, even injurious." After that the council, to a man, voted against the pernicious innovation.

NORTHERN SECURITIES CASE.

Washington, June 2.—The United States supreme court today granted the motion made by Solicitor General Hoyt two weeks ago to advance the case of the Northern Securities Co. The court fixed December 14 next as the date for argument.

U. S. Court of Appeals Affirms McKnight Case.

Will be Sent to the Federal Prison at Atlanta—Capt. Norton's Askes Reach Louisville.

BRIEF NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

M'KNIGHT CASE AFFIRMED.

Louisville, June 2.—The U. S. circuit court of appeals at Cincinnati today affirmed the six year sentence against ex-President J. M. McKnight of the defunct German National bank. He was convicted five times and had a mistrial once because of the death of a juror during the trial. He was charged with embezzlement, though only $2,000 was involved. He will be sent to the federal prison at Atlanta.

CAPT. NORTON'S REMAINS.

Louisville, June 2.—Dr. Joseph Sweeney reached here this morning with the ashes of the late Capt. W. F. Norton, Jr., which will at once be taken to Russellville and buried.

JUSTICE HANLAN WILL NOT RETIRE.

Washington, June 2.—Associate Justice Harlan of Kentucky today became eligible to retirement on full pay. He declared, however, that he has no idea of retiring.

IRELAND'S VOICE.

REPUDIATES CHAMBERLAIN'S TARIFF PROPOSALS.

Dublin, June 2.—Ireland's voice, with a few dissentient notes, repudiates Chamberlain's preferential tariff proposals, which are regarded primarily as a device to prevent the destruction of the government and secondarily as a means of imperial federation. In other words, it is believed that the colonial secretary, while undoubtedly cherishing thoughts of preferential tariffs, was not prepared to disclose his scheme at present.

NO ENLISTMENTS.

LOCAL RECRUITING STATION WAITING FOR ORDERS FROM HEADQUARTERS.

The naval recruiting office is not open for business yet, having received no orders relative to what class of recruits to enlist. The officers here have been in the office for two days but are unable to make any examinations or accept any recruits.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Nothing has been done in circuit court today other than the filing of a judgment for sale in favor of the plaintiff in the case of C. M. Peery against L. S. Westbrook.

ONE HAS DROPPED OUT

The Owensboro Club Transferred to Washington, Ind.

Paducah Was Beaten Again at Jackson Yesterday Afternoon by Score of 7 to 3.

VINCENNES PLAYS HERE TODAY

The Paducah baseball team returned home this morning after an absence of six days and reported that it had never in its experience as ball players been treated so badly by the umpire as it was at Clarksville and Jackson, especially the latter place. They claim the umpire actually won the game, calling balls strikes if they struck the ground in front of the plate.

Yesterday Paducah lost the third game by a score of 7 to 3. Paducah got 13 hits and Jackson 12. Mackie pitched and Clifford caught. Clifford's right hand is injured and he is somewhat disabled. Lloyd, who is scheduled to pitch today, has been ill for several days of chills and hedges will probably go in for the first game against the Vincennes team, which arrived last night on the Dick Fowler from Cairo.

A telegram from Owensboro says: "The Owensboro ball team of the K. I. T. league disbanded here yesterday. The trouble was brought about by the fact that the team had two managers, Jack Sheridan of Louisville and Rolla Jackson of this city. Sheridan did not suit Jackson, who was financial backer of the team. Sheridan left the team at Henderson last week. Bohannon, Aokers, Wallace, Lamont, Girard and Denny are in Louisville waiting for offers."

McNeil and Kelley will do the battery work for Vincennes this afternoon.

There were no games in the K. I. T. league yesterday except between Paducah and Jackson.

CHANGE OF VENUE

JETT AND WHITE WILL NOT BE TRIED IN THEIR OWN COUNTY.

Jackson, Ky., June 2.—A change of venue to Morgan county was this morning granted in the Jett-White cases, and June 23 is fixed as the date of trial. The troops will leave at once for home.

REBELLION IN YUN NAN.

Paris, June 2.—A dispatch from Saigon, capital of French Indo-China, says Governor General Bann has been detained in Tonquin by the serious conditions prevailing in the adjoining Chinese province, of Ynn Nan, where the rebellion is spreading.

Mr. Ed Drennen returned from St. Louis this morning.

FLOOD RECEDING NOW

The List of Dead Not Yet Known for Sure.

But It Is Believed Not Over 25 Have Perished in the Waters.

WORK OF RELIEF BEGINS

Topeka, Kas., June 2.—Water in the Kaunas river is falling at the rate of an inch an hour. From Manhattan comes the report that the water there is falling. At Wamego the same condition prevails, and it is now reasonably certain that the waters will steadily recede. It is now admitted that the number of dead is not known. Reports have been exaggerated.

In the excitement all sorts of rumors have come in. Men have seen persons fall into the water and take it for granted that those persons were drowned. Often the persons concerned are seen later. They tell of a thrilling experience, but are not allowed to take from the lists of dead. Some are still missing. It may be days before a trustworthy list is made. It is now thought that not more than 20 or 25 are dead.

Provisions of all sorts are becoming scarce in Topeka. No freight trains have entered the city for several days and there will not be enough for the people to eat if this situation lasts much longer. It is charged that certain of the merchants have formed a combination for the purpose of controlling the prices on provisions.

The Santa Fe is doing a great work in behalf of the sufferers. The facilities of their enormous shops here are at the disposal of those wishing to make a steam launch or other machinery of rescue. The officers have caused a pumping apparatus to be constructed and they are now sending a supply of water through the mains in the east portion of the city. By boiling the water it can be made fit to drink.

The situation at North Topeka is improving. There is but little more danger of death from drowning. Except in isolated cases the refugees have been cured. Many are wearing insufficient clothing. Hundreds are sleeping in improvised beds, but it is believed that all have been cared for.

The property loss from the best estimates now possible will amount to approximately $1,000,000. The whole of the North Topeka is still under water seven feet deep. While the 200 people penned up in the second stories of various buildings have plenty of food, they are in great need of good drinking water which is being supplied as rapidly as possible in barrels and cans.

The great fear at present is that some of the buildings in North Topeka may collapse because of their foundations being undermined by the water. There is no immediate apprehension that the wooden mill will go down but at the same time every effort will be made to extricate people from that point as quickly as possible to avoid any further loss of life.

President Roosevelt telegraphed from Cheyenne to Governor Bailey offering the assistance of the Federal authorities if needed, as follows:

"Cheyenne, Wyo., May 31.—Hon. W. J. Bailey, Topeka, Kas.—Am immensely shocked at reports of dreadful calamity that has befallen Topeka. If there is anything the federal authorities can do, of course let me know. "THEO. ROOSEVELT."

GAS FROM CHALK IS LATEST INVENTION.

London, June 2.—An invention for manufacturing gas of chalk has been tried in Sussex, with, it is said, surprising success. To every hundred tons of chalk will be mixed about ten tons of coke or coke breeze, and from this, it is claimed, 10,500,000 cubic feet of gas will be obtained.

EGAN'S REMAINS FOUND.

Belton, Mont., June 2.—The remains of Superintendent B. F. Egan of the Great Northern railroad, who was lost in the mountains of Montana while hunting November 4, were recovered today.

CAPTAIN PELL DEAD

Well Known River Man Dies of Bronchitis This Morning.

Was One of the Oldest Citizens of Paducah—Was Sixty-nine Years of Age.

BURIAL TOMORROW AFTERNOON

River Observer Charles A. Pell, one of the pioneer citizens of Paducah, died this morning about 3:30 o'clock at his home 1151 North 12th street from heart disease and acute bronchitis after a brief illness. His unexpected demise created great surprise and sorrow throughout the city. Mr. Pell being in his usual health up to 1 o'clock this morning. He was out yesterday and made his observations at the river as usual, and did not complain of being ill.

Mr. Pell, however, had been growing very feeble during the past few years, and two or three years ago had a stroke of paralysis that came near causing his death. He recovered, however, and had since been able to go about with much more energy than many younger men, and little did his many friends think when they saw him yesterday that it was the last time they would ever see him alive.

He retired as usual last night, and about 1 o'clock this morning became ill. His family called a physician, but his life slowly ebbed away, and death took place at 3:30.

The deceased was one of a family of widely known river men. He was up to the time of his death the oldest living native born Paducahan and it is claimed by many was the first white child born inside the corporate limits of Paducah. The late John Davis was the first white male child born in the county, but Colonel Pell was said to be the first male white child born in Paducah.

Most of his useful life he had spent here, being a man of steady habits, unassuming, honest and enjoying the respect and esteem of all who knew him. He was once in fine circumstances, but of late years on account of advanced age had been unable to follow his calling, that of a river man.

He served several years as city weigher, and made a good officer. He had engaged in no business since he retired from office, but was a familiar figure down town, where he had many friends on whom he frequently called during the day to spend a few minutes in pleasant conversation.

The deceased was born in this city in 1834 and in his youth was a pilot on the Ohio, Cumberland and Tennessee rivers for many years. He had in all performed the duties of city weigher for seventeen years. He had been river observer for this port for ten years.

On August 12, 1867, he was married, and leaves a wife and five children, two sons and three daughters.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence on North Twelfth street tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, services by Rev. W. H. Pinkerton of the First Christian church, of which the deceased had been a member since 1873, burial at Oak Grove.

WILL TRY AGAIN.

APPLICATION FOR ANOTHER COMPANY HERE DID NOT REACH FRANKFORT.

Captain James Caldwell, who several weeks ago sent in an application for a new military company here, received a letter this morning from headquarters regretting the delay and stating that the application had not reached Frankfort. Another will immediately be prepared and forwarded to that city, as the local militia members do not intend to give up the fight for two companies. All persons desiring to join the company will report to the armory on Tuesday and Thursday nights, the regular drill nights.

BETTER CONDITIONS HERE.

Louisville, June 2.—The weekly crop report issued today shows vastly improved conditions all over Kentucky.

THE JUNE MAGAZINES

"Success" for June sustains its well-known reputation for excellence in all of its popular features. Its cover is breezy with seasonable inspiration, the beautiful picture showing two handsome girls standing on the seashore and watching a fleet of yachts emerging into view from the horizon. The opening article is "Financing a Nation," by Frank Fazyant, in which is told in interesting detail how the United States government raises and distributes billions of dollars of government revenues, and supervises the most extensive banking system in the world. Another readable article of national interest is "The Young Men in the Administration," by Ridgely Torrence. "The Confession of a Crook," by David Graham Phillips, continues its absorbing hold upon the reader's attention and the same may be said of the current installment of "The Whip Hand," by Samuel Merwin in which a lumber trust attempts to put the screws on a number of small dealers. A special feature of the June "Success" is the third in its series of "The World's Greatest Men of Today," the portraits being those of 18 famous artists. Not only in matter in its illustrations the current "Success" is a superb number.

The June McClure's is one of the best rounded out and uniformly attractive numbers of this magazine ever issued. There is an unusually long table of contents, and not a page of dead matter. Henry Harland's new serial, "My Friend Prospero," cannot fail to be a drawing card. The first installment shows the author at his most charming best. The story opens in Italy, and promises to excel in every particular in which one looks for excellence from this splendid romancer. Two first class articles are "An Ocean Graveyard," by P. T. McGrath, and "The Swimming Hole," by Eugene Wood. Miss Tarbell's Standard Oil Chapter, "The Great Consummation," one is tempted to pronounce the best yet. The three short stories are of the very best. Arthur Standwood Pier's "The Triumph," goes out literally in a blaze of glory, the episode of a burning gas well, that makes a good story by itself.

The lover of fiction—especially in the form of short stories—will turn with pleasure to the latest issue of The Cosmopolitan. Here appear a charming love story by Francis Willing Wharton, beautifully illustrated by Thomas Mitchell Peirce; a dramatic railroad story by R. H. Farnham; a romance of the business world by Trambull White, and contributions by H. R. Martin and Henry Seton Merriman. The personal articles include character sketches of George Gilbert Williams, the great banker; William Barclay Parsons, chief engineer of the New York Rapid Transit commission, and Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal, high commissioner for Canada. There are also contributions by William R. Lighton, Antoinette Van Hooen, John Brisben Walker, and Julian Hawthorne. In all, there are 21 stories and articles in the June Cosmopolitan.

You will rarely see as interesting a table of contents as that of the June number of Everybody's Magazine. Beginning with the full page frontispiece of Thomas Wallace Russell, who has taken Parnell's place as leader in the fight for Ireland's freedom, and ending with "some additional remarks" by Simeon Ford, with his quaint and irresistible humor, the magazine is brimful of bright, snappy, entertaining work by good writers, some of them well known, others who are sure to be. The magazine is issued this month under a new management, the Ridgeway-Thayer company, who promise to increase its already clever excellence. Mr. Ridgeway has been with the Munsey company for nine years and Mr. Thayer was seven years with the Ladies' Home Journal, four years on the Delineator. Both understand how to give a good magazine.

The June number of The Smart Set opens with a novelette by James Branch Cabell, entitled, "The Linabands' Comedy." Among the sixteen short stories of the number, the most important are, "The Diary of Dewdrop," an idyll of Japan, by Onoto Watanna; "The Artful Arabella," an ingenious and intimate narrative of an episode at a house party, by Margaret Vinton Hamilton, and "A Man, Horse and a Girl," a strong story of the plains, by Mollie Elliot Seawell. A high standard of excellence, as well as of variety, is attained in the other stories of the number. The verse maintains that merit which has won for The Smart Set its literary prestige. The humor throughout is of the best; and there is, too, an essay, "The Passing of the Aristocrat," by Elizabeth Dyer, which is of unusual interest.

"A Lady of Influence" is the title of the novel in this month's issue of Lippincott's. Corline Gebhardt, the author, is remembered by an earlier story published in the same magazine called "A Real Daughter of the Revolution." General Charles King's name makes a thrill in the hearts of those who love a good love story—and which of us do not?—This under his signature in the June Lippincott's is entitled "Pepita," so called after a pretty little native Manila girl. The only exception to fiction in the June number is a paper about birds and their songs by Henry Oldys. It is called "Woodland Music," and is enriched by musical settings of bird phrases. Poems in the June Lippincott's are attuned to the month.

Ten Story Book has succeeded in doing something no other magazine has heretofore accomplished. It publishes in the June number an original detective story written by the world renowned detective William A. Pinkerton himself. The feature is distinctive and the story, entitled "The $60,000 in Gold, or the Fatal Hand," shows Mr. Pinkerton to have the dramatic instinct in a high degree. Other extremely clever skits in this issue of this popular magazine are those of Dorothy Dix and Zoe Anderson Norris. Charles Eugene Banks writes a good story of a social problem nature. The masterpiece is Samuel Lover's famous humorous story, "The Gridiron."

Mr. W. N. Robins of Chicago, who has been visiting in Tennessee, arrived today on his return home.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Board of Trustees Submits a Report of Work.

Shows a Balance of $888 from the Carnegie Fund of $35,000.

The report of the public library board submitted to the council last night is as follows:

Paducah, Ky., June 1, 1903.
To the Mayor and Members of the General Council, City of Paducah, Ky.

Gentlemen:
Pursuant to a contract entered into with Mr. Andrew Carnegie by the city of Paducah with regard to the acceptance of a donation offered by him of $35,000 for the erection of a public library, you authorized the appointment by the mayor of a board of trustees to receive said fund and erect a building.

On the 27th day of February, 1902, the following named persons, G. W. Perryman, Ed. P. Noble, Charlie Weille, Harry Savage and Jas. M. Lang, qualified under said appointment, were administered the oath of office and organized for the transaction of business.

After due diligence in securing plans a contract was let for the building proper, to cost $30,000, and there to reserve $5,000 for heating, internal finish and furniture, etc., etc.

The building is contracted to be completed by August 1 of the present year, and the trustees have contracted for this and other items, in amounts as follows:

Contract for building	$30,000
Heating same	1,898
Lighting and wiring	544
Extra lavatory and gas pipe	200
Architect and superintendent	1,500
Advertising and sundry expenses	100
Frescoing interior	375

Leaving a balance of the Carnegie fund of $888.

This balance is to be applied on the purchase of book racks, tables and chairs, which are calculated to cost some $2,000 or $2,500, and before contracting for same the trustees respectfully request your honorable body to signify an intention of paying to the board the sum of $3,500 for the year 1903, as provided in the city's contract with Mr. Carnegie, said sum to be paid by September 1 next.

We have received from Mr. Carnegie as follows:

1902
July 23	$3,000
October 21	5,000
November 18	5,000
1903
March 9	5,000
May 18	5,000
	$25,000

By paid Contractor Karnes in various sums	$19,000
By paid Mr. Brainerd assisting committee	25
By paid telegrams	1
By paid A. L. Lassiter	750
By paid Register Co.	11
By paid Sun Co.	12
By paid Charles Weille, advance	5
	$19,804

Balance on hand June 1 $5,196
Very respectfully,
JAS. M. LANG,
Secy. to Board of Trustees.

ARE IMPATIENT.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS WANT MONEY FOR ELECTION OFFICERS.

Chairman O. W. Morrison of the Democratic county committee, having waited for the money due for paying election officers for services at the recent state primary as long as he deemed advisable, has drawn on Chairman Young for $240, the amount necessary to pay off the remainder of the officers. It was said the money would be allowed by the state executive committee, which held a meeting Saturday, but thus far nothing has been heard from it.

FULTON PREACHER RESIGNS.

Fulton, June 2—Rev. O. L. Price of the Episcopal church of this city tendered his resignation to his congregation Sunday, to take effect October 1, at which time he will go to Hickman to take charge of the Episcopal church of that city as pastor.

THE BIG CONVENTION

Many Prominent Kentuckians in Louisville.

The Largest Commercial Meeting in the State's History.

Louisville, June 2—The third state commercial convention was called to order in this city at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Avenue theater. Two thousand delegates have been appointed to attend. The conditions are indicative of the most successful gathering yet held by the commercial men of the state. This body is to consider many important matters, probably that of greatest general interest being relative to the constitutional amendment enabling cities of the fourth class and better to provide their own system of taxation. The amendment will be placed before the people this fall, the necessary five years having elapsed since its defeat, and it is believed that the majority in its favor will be overwhelming. It is certain that the state commercial convention will take active steps toward fostering the amendment.

Over 500 acceptances of invitations have been received. The sessions will last throughout Thursday and the most representative commercial men of Kentucky will participate. The social side of the convention has not been overlooked by those who have been making the arrangements locally. Many diversions for the visitors have been provided, not the least being a "fast run" of the fire department.

COMMITTED SUICIDE

JAMES OWNBY, A UNION CITY LAWYER, TAKES DOSE OF MORPHINE.

News has reached here of the death of James P. Ownby, a well-known lawyer at Union City. Mr. Ownby died from the results of an overdose of morphine taken with suicidal intent. He took the deadly drug on retiring Saturday night but did not pass away until the following morning. Financial troubles are said to be the cause of his rash act. Mr. Ownby was one of the leading attorneys of the Obion county bar and a member of the W. O. W. and other lodges. He leaves a wife and several grown up children.

860 KILLED.

AND A SCORE OF VILLAGES DESTROYED BY EARTHQUAKE.

London, June 2—The British consul at Erzerum reports that an official estimate places the number of persons killed in the earthquake in the Van district of Asiatic Turkey at 800, while the loss of cattle was incalculable, as, owing to the lateness of the spring, a large majority of the animals were indoors. Nearly a score of villages were destroyed, and many more were partially demolished. The center of the seismic disturbance was in the neighborhood of Mount Gipsan.

LOCAL SANITATION.

CHAIN GANG USED TO CLEAN THE ALLEYS.

Paducah's sanitary condition promises to improve shortly, as those who have not cleaned up by the time the police officers come around again will be warranted and compelled to, in addition to being fined.

Street Inspector Eaker has a street force to work cleaning the alleys and expects to have them cleaned in a week or two.

BOAT GAVE BOND

PILOT FILES CLAIM AGAINST THE DICK OLYDE.

Yesterday the steamer Dick Olyde was served with libel papers by U. S. Deputy Marshal Syd Hubbard on a claim brought by Amos Price, pilot, who claims $30 for services. The boat was bonded out and the trial will be held before Judge Evans when the latter comes here to hold court.

The June number of "The Red Book" sustains its merit as a short story magazine. The stories are all vivid and readable, and some especially clever. The feature story, perhaps, is David Graham Phillips' dramatic story "A Point of Law." The illustrations are very taking and add to the stories' interest. It is the second number issued but it bids fair to be very popular.

FREE FACE BLEACH FOR COMPLEXION

I WILL SEND FREE TRIAL BOTTLE OF MY FACE BLEACH TO ANY LADY SENDING NAME AND ADDRESS.
MME. A. RUPPERT, 6 E 14TH ST., New York City

How to Obtain a Lovely COMPLEXION Clear and Beautiful

It is every woman's duty to be as youthful and good looking as possible, and there is nothing which adds more beauty than a lovely complexion, and there is no remedy which will restore the complexion and give one that youthful appearance like Mme. A. Ruppert's World Renowned Face Bleach. This grand remedy clears the skin of every discoloration, and impurity, including pimples, freckles, moth patches, brown spots, liver marks, comedones, flesh-worms, blackheads, oiliness, sallowness, muddiness and skin diseases. It accomplishes these wonderful effects by drawing the impurities and discolorations to the surface of the skin and then removing these blemishes by gradually scaling off a slight surface of the outer scurf. It does this in so natural a manner as to be entirely harmless to the most delicate complexion, and, having this action, it cannot fail to produce excellent effects.

Most marvelous results are obtained when Face Bleach is used according to my new Special Directions in conjunction with my Egyptian Balm, which nourishes and feeds the tissues and glands of the skin, and adds the finishing touch which refines, purifies and preserves the skin in its pristine splendor, giving it the glow of youth.

Now, in order that every lady reader of this paper may obtain the highest possible effect from the use of my preparations, I will make the following stupendous offer to all callers at the below address. A bottle of my Face Bleach, a trial jar of my Egyptian Balm, a bar of my most exquisite Almond Oil Complexion Soap, my new Special Directions, my book, "HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL"—all for $2. The price of Face Bleach alone is $2 per bottle, hence you receive articles absolutely free.

TUESDAY, JUNE 3 1903.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"Indecision brings its own delays."

THE WEATHER.

Shows tonight with fair and warmer Wednesday.

Mayor Yaiser reported to the council last night that the work of police officers as sanitary inspectors was not resulting in the good results anticipated. It is not known whether this was done as a preliminary to relieving the officers of the unpleasant duties, whether because the mayor was misinformed, or simply because the officers have not been doing the work as well as they might. It is reasonable to presume, however, that if 24 police officers can't do better work in covering the town and issuing notices to clean up, than the broken down politicians and pensioners sent around to do the work in past years, something is wrong somewhere. Neither way may be entirely satisfactory in securing the desired sanitary conditions, but certainly 24 men ought to do better work than two, the number of sanitary inspectors heretofore employed, when all required of them is to walk around and leave notices where a nuisance appears to exist. Judging from the howl that is being raised by people ordered to clean up who do not think their premises need it, the officers are doing fairly good work. A few warrants against the delinquent now would help matters along a great deal and leave less cause for complaint.

It becomes very significant when the city is painted in its true colors by our afternoon Democratic contemporaries, which calls attention occasionally to the many imperfections we might spend our time trying to remedy in Paducah. Paducah has practically been under Democratic rule since the city was incorporated. The Republicans have had one two-year council in past years, and the remainder of the time the Democrats have been in power, and are to blame for the kind of city we have, and for the fact that we are so far behind the times. Will our afternoon contemporary support the Democratic nominee this November if he happens to be of the unprogressive type, and bent on forcing Paducah to put up for four years longer with the many things complained of? If some of the Democratic aspirants were nominated and elected, it would mean to play along in the same old rut. If others, it would mean a ten year setback for the city. Will there be a bolt in favor of progress, by our collaborator?

Some idea of the transcendent baseness, ability of the council may be determined from the fact that it fixed the salary of the city clerk, whose work is mainly clerical, at $1500 a year and that of the solicitor at $900. One does writing principally, and the other gives advice in all legal matters involving the welfare and finances of the city. The city clerk might cause the city temporary embarrassment if he didn't do his work right, but the city solicitor can absolutely wreck the city financially if he does not do his work well. The council has now repealed the ordinance fixing the solicitor's salary at $900 in order to combine the office with that of city attorney. It probably expects to get a good man to discharge the duties of both offices for a nominal sum a year. It has never appeared to dawn on the members of the council that a good lawyer can often earn one fee in a short time larger than the entire salary offered by the city for the arduous work of a whole year.

It appears from the reply of Former Postmaster General Smith to the charges made by Former Cashier Talloch of the Washington postoffice that much of the so-called postoffice scandal was the result of a misconstruction of the facts. Much of Mr. Talloch's report dealt with the conduct of the department from 1898 through the Spanish-American war, and it appears had been made before and every item carefully investigated and satisfactorily explained. When the war was declared, and thousands of troops were concentrated in various places, the postoffice problem became a serious one to cope with. Millions of letters, papers and packages were daily sent the soldiers to the various camps, and in order to handle them the various camps were made branches of the Washington or the New York post-offices, and apparently caused the confusion and misapprehension.

It seems probable that Miss Ellen Stone, the missionary, will not succeed in securing damages from Turkey for her capture and detention by brigands, even if she succeeds in inducing this government to make a formal demand on Turkey. When Miss Stone was in captivity Turkey offered to send troops to the rescue, but was persuaded not to by special request of this government, which feared for the safety of the captives in case the brigands discovered they were pursued. Should reparation be demanded now Turkey would doubtless, in the opinion of many experienced diplomats, offer this as a defense and possibly exonerate herself.

The Republicans will no doubt in the approaching presidential campaign be firmly against any suggestion to tinker with the tariff and thus disturb the general prosperity of the country, and the Pennsylvania convention probably sounded the keynote in its platform to permit the tariff to remain as it is. It is suggested by many of the most prominent Republicans in the country that the platform of this convention be taken as a model for other Republican conventions, and the outlook is for a national platform unalterably opposed to any change in the tariff laws.

Editor Charles M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, was the whole thing a short time ago in the estimation of the anti-machine crowd when he filed his great injunction suit against the Democratic committee, and was called a courageous martyr. But since then quite a change has come over the spirit of their dreams and they now charge him with treachery and playing into the gang's hands. They might have known that Editor Meacham is too old to be taught new tricks and in reality is just as he always was—a machine politician and member of the gang.

Mayor Yaiser, as the primary slowly but surely approaches, is beginning to devote public improvements, something he may have favored before, but which he never exerted any outstanding effort in the past to secure. He now has the courage to favor a few new sidewalks, which indicates that the mayor sees the trend of the public opinion, and realizes that antiquated, unprogressive methods must now be discarded in Paducah, for the people demand improvements, and plenty of them.

Russia seems to be even shrewder than she has been accused of being. She is now recruiting Chinese soldiers. When she gets all the Celestials in her own army, it will be very easy to take possession of China and rule the country—provided, of course, the Monroe doctrine isn't extended to the Flowery Kingdom before that time.

The council seems to be still at work on some of the measures it has passed, beaten, amended and tabled for the past year or more. Probably if the millennium doesn't overtake it, it will finish some day.

Mayor Yaiser sees the signs of the times and is getting quite chummy with the public improvement idea.

GOES TO BURNSIDE

MR. G. W. SMITH BECOMES MASTER MECHANIC THERE.

Mr. G. W. Smith, one of the assistants to Superintendent of Machinery William Renshaw, has been placed in the Burnside shop at Chicago as master mechanic, succeeding Mr. F. E. Place, resigned. Mr. T. F. Barton, the local master mechanic, was tipped for the place but on account of the abolition of the office Mr. Smith formerly held did not receive the promotion.

PLANS NEARLY READY

Mr. Chas. T. Graham's Theater to be Built at Once.

It Will Be a Complete Playhouse, Modern in Its Appointments.

Architect Lassiter has about completed the preliminary plans for Mr. Charles T. Graham's theater at Ninth and Court streets. This theater will be run on regular metropolitan style and first class vaudeville companies will be secured. The idea to build a theater at Ninth and Court has been in the mind of Mr. Graham for some time. It will be ready for business, it is thought, by the beginning of the winter season. The building will be 50x160 feet, the front portion being reserved for business and the up stairs for a lodge room, one of the finest in the city. The opera house will have a seating capacity of 1100 and the stage will be 29x50, one gallery and four boxes, two on each side. The opera house portion will be ground floor. The plans will be ready for bids within four or five days. The seats will be of plush, and the theater will be one of the finest in this section.

CARE OF BABIES.

CHICAGO BOARD OF HEALTH GIVES A FEW HINTS FOR MOTHERS DURING HOT WEATHER.

Chicago, June 2.—Tracts on the hot weather care of infants and young children are sent for the first time this year at the department of the board of health. The topics discussed in the circulars are:

- "The proper food for babies is mother's milk."
- "Don't overfeed the baby."
- "Don't feed the baby with a spoon."
- "Use a piston, common bottle for feeding."
- "Keep the baby clean and it will stand the heat better."
- "Do not let the baby sleep in the same room with any other person."
- "Do not drug the baby."
- Among the "don'ts" are:
- "Don't give them rich foods nor a great variety. The simpler and plainer the better—whole wheat bread, oatmeal, baked potatoes, baked apples, fresh fruit of all kinds, but be sure the fruit is ripe and fresh."
- "Keep up the daily bath until it becomes a habit."
- "Keep them in the open air as much as possible."
- "There is no mother in the city that can not get the best of medical treatment for her sick baby without money and without price if she is unable to pay. Call a doctor, instead of spending money for patent medicines, soothing syrups or 'curealls,' which will probably do your baby more harm than good."
- "Find out what makes the baby cry, and don't be afraid to give it a drink of water. It needs water as much as milk. It needs more water in proportion than its mother does. Thirst causes more needless suffering to babies than anything else."

ELECTED DIRECTOR

MR. H. D. FITCH OF BOWLING GREEN, SUCCEEDS CINCINNATI MAN.

Mr. H. D. Fitch, of Bowling Green, Ky., who promoted the new steam heating plant here, was yesterday afternoon elected a director in the Paducah City Railway company to succeed Mr. C. S. Molthy, a Cincinnati man. Mr. Fitch is expected in the city today.

MURDERED AT SEA.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., June 2.—News of a murder at sea became known here when the United States revenue cutter Seminole arrived with Second Mate Johnson of the Bath, Mass., schooner Edward E. Briny on board, charged with having shot and killed J. French, a West Indian merchant, a member of the crew of the schooner, for refusing to obey orders. The cutter also had French's body on board.

TAX ON BABIES.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies; when puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. 25c at DeBols, Kolh & Co.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Three Bottles Saved Mr. Tripp From Indigestion, Liver Trouble and Rheumatism

There was never a remedy so highly recommended for making sick people well in summertime as Paine's Celery Compound. It successfully grapples with all the ailments common in summertime, and never fails to remove long-standing and chronic diseases that have baffled the skill of physicians. When Paine's Celery Compound is used there is no long waiting for results. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, assists digestion, exerts the bowels to healthy action, expels all foul humors from the blood and braces the nervous system. Mr. J. D. Tripp, West Knoxville, Mo., says: "I suffered from indigestion, liver trouble, kidney disease and rheumatism. The worst trouble was in my head; the pain commenced in the shoulders and ran up my neck until it reached the head. I could not sleep at night, had ugly dreams and bad feelings when I did sleep. Since taking three bottles of Paine's Celery Compound I am well and feel like a new man. I have a good appetite and can do a good day's work. I am recommending Paine's Celery Compound to everyone who is suffering."

WHITE STAR COFFEE

When buying coffee, remember that a tin can will preserve in a correct way the much prized qualities of the choicest varieties—that it is the purity and flavor which it is important for you to have—that a coffee marketed upon its reputation is more likely to represent a legitimate value than one that is sold in some other way.

QUITE STARTLING

Remains of Man Identified as John Wilkes Booth.

Seems Lincoln's Assassin Was Never Killed—Solelded at Enid, I. T.

Enid, O. T., June 2—Junius Bratus
Booth, the actor and nephew of John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln, has fully identified the remains of the man known as David E. George as his uncle. George, or Booth, committed suicide here January 14 last and in his effects said was found a letter directed to F. L. Bates of Memphis, Tenn. By Bates' instructions the body was embalmed and is today kept here in a secret repository.
Mr. Bates came here at once and fully identified the body as John Wilkes Booth. He, however, in order to have his records straight, went east, and has obtained positive identification of the remains from the dead man's nephew and from Joseph Jefferson, Miss Clara Morris and a score of others who knew him in his early days.

According to Mr. Bates' story he had acted as Booth's confidential agent and attorney for nearly forty years.
After Lincoln was shot the assassin escaped to the Garrett plantation in Virginia. According to Mr. Bates the man who was killed was a man by the name of Hudby. Both had been at Garrett's for about 124 hours, but on the afternoon before the alleged capture he had been warned to leave, and did so.

Booth was afterwards taken by friends, and, in the disguise of an old colored man, he made his way to friends in central Kentucky, where he recuperated his strength and proceeded on his way to the Indian Territory, following the course of the Arkansas river from a point where it empties into the Mississippi.

From here he drifted into Texas and naturally selected the most isolated spot in the state. The place at which Booth settled was Glen Rose Mills, Tex., then on the frontier. There he contacted a store for several years,
and it was there in 1871 that Mr.
Bates first met him. While there he was known as John St. Helene, but changed his name whenever he moved.
Mr. Bates has four photographs of the man taken at different times in his life, and each is a complete identification of the others. In addition the marks on the body of George were identical with those of Booth.

Mr. Bates has just returned to Enid and has possession of the remains of Booth and all his effects. He will act as the executor of his estate.

WHITTAKER WRIGHT CASE.
Washington, June 2—The United States supreme court has refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Whitaker Wright, the financial operator who is in custody in New York awaiting extradition on charges made in England. The opinion affirms the decision of the United States supreme court for the southern district of New York.

SNAP, PUSH AND GO.
IS WHAT ONE SHOULD GET FROM FOOD.

A young St. Louis lady learned a food lesson she won't forget. She says: "I suffered from indigestion for nearly ten years, and although I tried all kinds of foods for breakfast I could not eat any of them until one day I discovered Grape-Nuts, and now
I wonder how I ever did without it."
"I am a stenographer in a business office and need all the energy possible, but I formerly spent the greater part of every morning wishing I had gone without breakfast, for I was continually reminded of it by the uncon-fortable, distressed state of my stomach. How much ability I lost through this I could not tell you, but now all is different, for I eat some fruit and a canister of Grape-Nuts and work hard all morning and never think about my stomach until lunch time comes."
"I feel the good effects of Grape-Nuts in a sharpened brain, better memory and increased thinking capacity. The only difficulty I have about it is that I never want to limit myself to the required amount, for I love it so." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
There is a reason why Grape-Nuts
sharpen the brain.
It's fun to make new and delicious desserts by the recipe book found in each package of Grape-Nuts.

PARIS SALOONS CLOSED.

Paris, Tenn., June 2—The last two saloons in Paris closed their doors Saturday night, pending a decision from the supreme court. This makes Paris a dry town, and no whiskey is sold within fifty miles. The temperance people are rejoicing very much over the fact.

COFFEE CROP SHORT

SANTA MARIA VOLCANO CAUSED EXTENSIVE LOSS.

New Orleans, June 2—"The coffee crop in Guatemala this season will be at least 250,000 quintals short because of the eruptions of volcano Santa Maria," said O. Tesiel, of Guatemala City, who came up from the Central American country.

"The volcano has erupted so continuously and so persistently that many of the plantations are now covered to a depth of two feet or more in sand and ashes, and the crops in much of the best coffee territory are entirely destroyed. This is going to work a great hardship on the planters who were not otherwise injured by the eruption in the way of burned houses and killed livestock."

RELIEF FOR KISHINEFF.

AMERICAN SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR SUFFERERS GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGED.

St. Petersburg, June 2—The American subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers at Kishineff are gratefully ac-knowledgeed by the Jewish community which recognizes that the United States has easily taken the lead both in material and moral sympathy. The Jewish journal Vishkol voices the sentiment of the Jews as follows:

"The land of the dollar, as Europe
terms America, has displayed more humanity toward the victims than Europe with its vaunted idealism, though Europe was unusually generous. American sympathy in this terrible crisis will render that country infinitely dear to our hearts."

Pia Filled with Liva Birds.

The new governor of British Gu-iana, Sir James Swettenham, is a man of original ideas, says a Kingston correspondent in the Nashville Banner. He gave a ball the other day, and at supper an enormous pie was placed in front of him. When he cut the crust four and twenty little birds hopped out and flew about the room. Their feathers had been painted in brilliant colors. At first it was thought that the idea was to illustrate a well-known nursery rhyme, but it appears that this sort of bird pie is a popular custom in the Malay states, where Sir James comes from. The birds are caught and passed around among the guests, fortune being apposed to smile upon all who handle them.

MISS SINNOTT

A Baby's Birth

is very much like the blossom of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use regularly during the months of gestation. This is a simple liniment, which is to be applied externally. It gives strength and vigor to the muscles and prevents all the discomforts of pregnancy, which women used to think were absolutely necessary. When Mother's Friend is used there is no danger whatever.

Mother's Friend

ROUTINE BUSINESS

Was the Principal Feature of the Council Meeting.

Mayor Yeiser Denies That He Is Against Improvements—New Ordinances Passed.

REGULAR DEPARTMENT REPORT

The council held its regular meeting last night with all members present and quite a lengthy session was held.

The water company was ordered to extend its mains on Madison between 17th and 18th streets.

The contract for grading and graveling 14th street, from Broadway to Moore streets, was awarded E. O. Terrell who placed a bid at 28 cents per lineal foot.

An ordinance providing for improvements to an alley between Sixth and Seventh, Clark and Adams streets, was deferred as the property owners have never dedicated the property to the city.

The printing committee was authorized to ask for bids on printing city ordinances and charters for distribution.

Mr. Sam Liebel complained of bad drainage to property on account of an irregular street grade, and to remedy this defect the council ordered a drain pipe placed in, the cost not to exceed $40.

The public improvement committee was instructed to look into a complaint made by Mr. Sam Liebel that his property near the post houses is shut off by the city.

The matter of paying Mr. W. W. Lyon for the assessor's map made for the city a few years ago was referred.

Mr. Lyon had been refused payment of a balance on account of alleged incompleteness of the map and he has threatened to sue for the money.

The street committee was instructed to fix a price for the old post house property, near the old fair grounds, several parties desiring to purchase it.

Mayor Yeiser made a denial of the report that he was against the sidewalk improvements through selfish motives. He stated that he was in favor of the improvements in every detail, and also for the improvement of the territory bounded by Second, Seventh, Monroe and Washington streets.

The application of the N. O. and St. L. road to cross Meyers street near Woodward with a spur track was referred.

Contractor E. O. Terrell was awarded the contract for improving an alley between Third and Fourth, Norton and Caldwell streets at 25 cents per lineal foot.

The mayor reported that the move in placing sanitary inspections to the hands of the police had not been very successful and that he would again bring this matter up in a more definite form for action if conditions were not bettered shortly.

An ordinance providing for additional pavement improvements was ordered drawn up. These improvements will extend from Second to Seventh, Washington and Monroe streets. The matter of laying before the people a bond issue for street improvements was also taken up and ordered placed before the people in the next regular election in November.

The treasurer's report showing on hand May 1, a balance of $547.37 with collections since amounting to $8,865.49 and expenditures of $9,220.24 with balance of $192.62, was received and filed.

Bills amounting to $6,528.89 were allowed.

A bill of $78 was allowed the Commercial club for expenditures in entertaining visitors who came here with a view to locating new industries.

Mayor Yeiser stated that Mrs. Wirth had gotten a judgment against the city amounting to $200 for estimates on street improvements, which had been sold her by a city contractor. The board decided to pay off the judgment.

On motion the board adjourned.

A SPLENDID REMEDY.

Neuralgia pains, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the nerves and bone, and being absorbed in the blood, its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body and effect some wonderful cures. Mr. D. F. Moore, agent Illinois Central railway, Milan, Tenn., states: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism, headache, etc., in my family. It is a splendid remedy. We could not do without it." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

DIED IN LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, June 2—Mr. Lewis Garth Wood, a prominent citizen of Clarksville, Tenn., died here from liver trouble. He was born in Todd county Kentucky, in 1850, and was a retired tobaccoist, leaving a wife and daughter in Clarksville and a brother, Mr. Eugene Wood, of Hopkinsville.

WHEEL ROD BROKE

And Disabled the Fast Steamer Dick Fowler.

Was Towed In From Near Brookport and Will Be Off for Several Days.

LOSS IS SEVERAL HUNDRED

The Cairo and Paducah packet Dick Fowler was disabled last night about 10:25 o'clock two miles below the city by her cylinder timbers breaking on the larboard side, letting the big wheel down with a sudden lurch.

The accident caused very little excitement aboard, the passengers thinking that the boat had only struck a log or some other floating object, but the steamer was unable to proceed further and going to back was later on aided by the Lizzia Archbold, a tug of Brookport, which came to the rescue and towed her in to the wharf here about 2 o'clock this morning.

The cause of the accident was the breaking of the wheel chains which are long iron rods that hold up the timbers which support the wheel. When one of these rods broke by the head pulling off, the weight was thrown on the remaining one, the threads on which gave way, leaving the weight of the massive wheel on the cylinder timber, which broke, letting the wheel down several feet on that side of the boat.

The boat will be disabled for several days, perhaps as long as ten days, and the damage will amount to possibly $200 or more, not including the loss of business resulting from the delay. The wheel will have to be lifted on the dock or ways before the new timber, which will first have to be made, can be placed in. It is not known yet whether or not the owners of the boat will charter another boat in the Fowler's place until she can re-enter the service. There was no boat to Cairo today.

HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do, it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Proprietor, Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

AN OLD-TIMER.

Mrs. Laura E. Howey, librarian of the State Historical society of Montana, has received from C. E. Reese of Virginia City one of the tickets used in the early 60's on the stage lines of Montana. It is from Virginia City to New York, issued by the Wells-Fargo company, the fare at that time being $180. The ticket is composed of eight coupons.

The first is by stage, supposedly to Salt Lake, there being a blank space to be filled in. From there it is over the Union Pacific railroad to Omaha, by omnibus to Council Bluffs and from there to Chicago over the Chicago and Northwestern railway.

From Chicago the ticket is over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago to Pittsburgh and from Pittsburgh to Harrisburg over the Pennsylvania Central. From the latter place to New York the ticket calls for passage over the Allentown line to New York.

CONSTIPATED BOWELS.

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 142 N. Main street, Wichita, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." Price 50c.

Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS.

Sturgis, June 2—President J. L. Frankel of the Tradewater Coal Co. announces many improvements and a steady run of work for the big colliery, which is one of the most prosperous in the state. About 100 new houses will also be built to accommodate the increased force of miners.

Mr. J. W. Kirkpatrick of Ripley, Tenn., was in the city today.

GRAUSTARK

... By ...
GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert E. Stone

The train was ready to pull out when he reached the station, and it was only by a hard run that he caught the last platform, panting, but happy. Just twenty-four hours before she had left Washington, and it was right here that she had smiled and said she would expect him to come to Edelweiss. He had had no time to secure a berth in the sleeper, but was fortunately able to get one after taking the train. Graustark went to sleep feeling both disappointed and disgusted—disappointed because of his submission to sentiment, disgusted because of the man who occupied the next section. A man who in love and in doubt has no patience with the prosaic wretch who can sleep so audibly.

After a hasty breakfast in New York he telephoned to the steamship company's pier and asked the time of sailing for the Kaiser Wilhelm. On being informed that the ship was to cast off at her usual hour, he straightway called a cab and was soon howling along toward the busy waterway. Directly he sat bolt upright, rigid and startled to find himself more awakened to the realization of his absurd action. Again it entered his infatuated head that he was performing the veriest schoolboy trick in rushing to a steamship pier in the hope of catching a final and at best unsatisfactory glimpse of a young woman who had appealed to his sensitive admiration. A lovesick boy could be excused for such a display of imbecility, but a man—a man of the world! Never!

"The idea of chasing down to the water's edge to see that girl is enough to make you ashamed of yourself for life, Grenfall Lorry," he apostrophized. "It's worse than any lovesick fool ever dreamed of doing. I am blushing, I'll be bound. The idler, the rank idler of the thing! And suppose she should see me staring at her out there on the pier? What would she think of me? I'll not go another foot! I won't be a fool!"

He was excited and self-conscious and thoroughly ashamed of the trip into which his impetuous adoration had driven him. Just as he was tugging at the door in the effort to open it that he might order the driver to take him back to the hotel a sly tempter whispered something in his ear. His fancy was caught, and he listened:

"Why not go down to the pier and look over the passenger list just to see if she has been booked safely? That would be perfectly proper and sensible, and, besides, it will be a satisfaction to know that she gets off all right. Certainly! There's nothing foolish in that. . . . Especially as I am right on the way there. . . . And as I have come so far . . . there's no sense in going back without seeing whether she has secured passage. . . . I can find out in a minute and then go home. . . . There won't be anything wrong in that. And then I may get a glimpse of her before the ship leaves the pier. She must not see me, of course. Never! She'd laugh at me. How I'd hate to see her laughing at me!" Then, sinking back again with a smile of justification on his face, he muttered: "We won't turn back; we'll go right ahead. We'll be a kind of a fool, but not so foolish as to allow her to see us and recognize us as one."

Before long they arrived at the wharf, and he hurried to the office near by. The clerk permitted him to look over the list. First he ran through the first class passengers and was surprised to find that there was no such name as Guggenlocker in the list. Then he went over the second class, but still no Guggenlocker.

"Haven't Mr. Guggenlocker taken passage?" he demanded, unwilling to believe his eyes.

"Not on the Kaiser Wilhelm, sir."

"Then, by George, they'll miss the boat!" Lorry exclaimed. "Maybe they'll be here in a few minutes."

"They can't get anything but steerage now, sir. Everything else is gone."

"Are you sure they haven't taken passage?" asked the bewildered Lorry weakly.

"You can see for yourself," answered the young man curily.

Lorry was again in a perspiration, this time the result of a vague, growing suspicion that had forced itself into his mind. Gradually he came to the conclusion that she had fooled him, had lied to him. She did not intend to sail on the Wilhelm at all. It was all very clear to him now—that strangeness in her manner, those odd occasional smiles. What was she—an adventuress? That sweet faced girl a little ordinary coquette, a liar? He turned cold with the thought.

The clanging of bells broke upon his ears, and he knew that the great ship was about to depart. Mechanically, disconsolately, he walked out and paced the broad, crowded wharf. All was excitement. There were the rush of people, the shouts, the cheers, the puffing of tugs, the churning of water, and the Kaiser Wilhelm was off on its long voyage. Half heartedly, miserably and in a dazed condition he found a place in the front row along the rail. There were tears in his eyes, tears of anger, abame and mortification. She had played with him!

Gloomily his disappointed eyes swept along the rail of the big steamer, half interested in spite of himself. Twice they passed a certain point on the forward deck, unconscious of a force that was attracting them in that direction. The third time he allowed them to settle for an instant on the group of faces and figures and then stray off to other parts of the ship. Some strange power drew them again to the forward deck, and this time he was startled into an intent stare. Could he believe those eyes? Surely that was her figure at the rail—here between the two young women who were waving their handkerchiefs so frantically. His heart began to jump up and down, wildly, doubtfully, impatiently. Why could not that face be turned toward the wharf as the others were? There was the blue coat, but not the blue cap; a janity sailor hat sat where the never to be forgotten cap had perched. The change was slight, but it was sufficient to throw him into the most feverish state of uncertainty. An insane desire to shout a command to this strange young woman came over him.

The ship was slowly opening a gap between herself and the wharf, and he knew that in a few moments recognition would be impossible. Just as he was losing hope and was ready to groan with despair the face beneath the sailor hat was turned squarely in his direction. A glaze obscured his eyes; a numbness attacked his brain. It was Miss Guggenlocker!

A pair of big glasses was leveled at him for a second and then lowered. He plainly saw the smile on her face and the fluttering cambric in her hand. He waved his hat and then his handkerchief, obtaining from her vigorous and unrestrained signs of approbation. Her face was wreathed in smiles as she leaned far over the rail, the picture of animated pleasure.

Making sure that her uncle and aunt were not visible, he boldly placed his fingers to his lips and waived a kiss out over the water.

"Now she'll crush me!" he cried to himself, regretting the rash act and praying that she had not observed it.

Her handkerchief ceased fluttering in an instant, and, with sinking heart, he realized that she had observed. There was a moment of indecision on the part of the fair one going not to sea, and then the little finger tips of both hands went to her lips and his kiss came back to him.

While he was still waving his handkerchief, debating savagely and joyously the wisdom of the act, she became a part of the distant color scheme. The blue figure faded and blended into the general tone and could no longer be distinguished. She was gone, but she had tossed him a kiss from lips that he should always see.

Uppermost in his bewildered mind was the question, Why is she not in the passenger list? Acting on a sudden impulse, he again sought out the clerk in charge and made a most thorough inspection. There was no Guggenlocker among the names. As a last resort he asked:

"They could not have sailed under an assumed name, could they?"

"I can't say as to that. Where are they going?"

"Graustark."

But the young man shook his head slowly, Lorry's shaking in unconscious accord.

"Are you sure that you saw the young lady on board?"

"Well, rather," exclaimed Lorry emphatically.

"I was going to say there are a lot of Italian and German singers on the ship, and you might have been mistaken. But since you are so positive it seems very strange that your friends are not on the list."

So Lorry went away discouraged and with a vague fear that she might have been a prima donna whose real name was Guggenlocker, but whose stage name was something more euphonious. He instantly put away the thought and the fear. She was certainly not an opera singer—impossible! He drove back to his hotel and made preparations for his return to Washington, glancing enviously over the register, he came to the name that had been haunting him—Guggenlocker! There were the names, "Caspar Guggenlocker and four, Graustark." Without hesitation he began to question the clerk.

"They sailed on the Kaiser Wilhelm today," said that worthy. "That's all I know about them. They came yesterday and left today."

Mr. Grenfall Lorry returned to Washington as in a dream—a fairy dream. The air of mystery that had grown from the first was now an impenetrable wall, the top of which his curiosity could not scale. Even his fancy, his imagination, served him not. There was but one point on which he was satisfied—he was in love. His own condition was no mystery.

Through the long hot summer he worked and worried and wondered. He must know all about her! But how?

The early months of autumn found him pale and tired and indifferent alike to work and play. He found no pleasure in the society that had known him as a lion. The doctor told him he was approaching nervous prostration. His mother's anxious eyes could no longer be denied, so he realized grimly that there was but one course left open to him. He suggested it to the doctor, to his mother and to his uncle, and they agreed with him. It involved Europe.

Having fully decided again to cross the sea, his spirits revived. He became more cheerful, took an interest in things that were going on, and by the time the Kaiser Wilhelm sailed in September was the picture of health and life.

He was off for Edelweiss—to the strange Miss Guggenlocker who had thrown him a kiss from the deck that sailing day.

CHAPTER VI.
GRAUSTARK.

TWO weeks later Grenfall Lorry was lauded and enjoying the sensations, the delights, of that wonderful world called by the name of Paris. The second day after his arrival he met a Harvard man of his time on the street. Harry Anguish had been a pseudo art student for two years. When at college, he was a hall fellow who met, a leader in athletics and in matters upon which faculties frowned. He and Lorry were warm friends, although utterly unlike in temperament. To know either of these men was to like him. Between the two one found all that was admirable and interesting in man. The faults and virtues of each were along such different lines that they balanced perfectly when lumped upon the scale of personal estimation. Their unexpected meeting in Paris was an exhilarating pleasure to both, and for the next week or so they were inseparable. Together they slipped stealthily at the cafes and strolled into the theaters, the opera, the dance halls and the homes of some of Anguish's friends, French and American.

Lorry did not speak to his friend of Graustark until nearly two weeks after his arrival in the city. He had discussed with himself the advisability of revealing his plans to Anguish, fearing the latter's ridicule with all the cowardice of a man who knows that scoffing is in a large measure justifiable. Growling impatient to begin the search for the unborn of country, its capital and at least one of its inhabitants, he was at last compelled to inform Anguish to a certain extent of his plans for the future. He began by telling him of his intention to take a run over toward Vienna, Budapest and some of the eastern cities, expecting to be gone a couple of months. To his surprise and consternation, Anguish enthusiastically volunteered to take the trip with him, having had the same project in view for nearly a year.

There was nothing left for Lorry but to make a clean breast of it, which he did shamefacedly, expecting the laughter and ridicule of his light hearted friend as payment for his confidence. Instead, however, Anguish, who possessed a lively and romantic nature, was charmed by the story and proclaimed it to be the most delightful adventure that had ever happened outside of a story book.

"Tell me all about her," he urged, his eyes sparkling with boyish enthusiasm. And Lorry proceeded to give him a personal description of the mysterious beauty, introducing him in the same manner to the distinguished uncle and aunt, adding all those details which had confounded and upset him during his own investigations.

"This is rich!" exclaimed Anguish. "Bonta any novel written, I declare. Legend, old man, I don't blame you for hunting down this wonderful bit of femininity. With a curiosity and an admiration that had been sharpened so keenly as yours, I'd go to the end of the world myself to have them satisfied."

"I may be able to satisfy but one curiosity. And maybe not that. But who knows of Graustark?"

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Prize Well Awarded.

The Awdiffred prize of $30,000 has been awarded to Mme. Meyrier, wife of the French consul at Marbekir, Turkey, for her heroism during the Armenian massacres in 1895. The "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now what next? What is most important? Unquestionably "Style!" Demand that a shoe shall possess "Style!" If it has style and little else you want it; if it has not style but everything else, you don't want it!

The "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'" is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the "Dorothy Dodd" is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe made. It holds the foot firmly at the waist (that's the instep), prevents the toes from slipping forward, and thus gives a correct poise in walking. Yet it makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it till you see it.

Just for once try the "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

A Child's Eyes

should be examined when it is old enough to attend school in order to be sure it does not suffer from some defect of the eyes. Defective vision is a very common cause of apparent mental dullness in children. A prominent teacher has said that he has never met with a case of chronic bad spelling in children without some eye trouble. Trouble from imperfect seeing comes not only from seeing words and figures wrongly, but from fatigue of the brain caused by "eye strain." EXAMINATION WITHOUT CHARGE.

BOERS IN MEXICO.

THEY WILL ESTABLISH A COLONY AT CHIHUAHUA.

New York, June 2—General W. D. Smyrna, formerly of the Boer army, has returned to New York full of enthusiasm over the successful development of his plans for the establishment of a Boer colony in Mexico. He took with him Generals Viljoen, Fouché, Kretzinger, Malan and Jonbert. The party visited Mexico City and were warmly received by the officials. President Diaz and Secretary Limantour suggested a thorough tour of the republic, and the president particularly urged the advantages of the Yaqui country in Sonora.

However, they finally fell on Chihuahua. Here a tract of 83,000 acres of grazing and agricultural land was purchased, known as the Santa Rosa Lia property, on the Conchos river, 12 miles from Ortiz, on the Mexican Central railway. Of this tract 4000 acres are already under irrigation, and there are 1000 head of cattle on the range.

Everything is in most satisfactory shape. General Viljoen is now on his way to South Africa to make arrangements for bringing over the first 50 Boer families.

SERIOUS CHARGE

ACCUSED OF DETAINING A GIRL AGAINST HER WILL.

Hopkinsville, June 2—Will Eaton, a young white man, is in jail here charged with unlawfully detaining a 14 year old girl named Sadie White. It is claimed the girl went to the barn for kindling wood when Eaton locked the door and attempted to carry out his desire, but she managed to escape and gave the alarm.

The June term of the Christian county circuit court convened this morning. Theodore Cook is presiding and as usual opened the session with prayer. The term will last four weeks, and on account of repairs being made on the court house court is being held in the city court room.

NEW BUILDINGS

NEW BAPTIST CHAPEL HERE AND POOR HOUSE IN GRAVES.

Architect Lassiter is at present engaged in drawing plans for the Graves county poor house, and also the plans for a Baptist chapel to be built on North Twelfth street below Trimble. The poor farm will cost about $1,000 and the plans will be finished this week. The chapel is being built by the First Baptist church and will be completed within twenty days and ready for services.

Theatrical Notes.

"Said Pasha" was successfully presented at the Casino last night at Wallace park despite the bad weather and small crowd. The chorus seems to be better trained and the music has a dash and vim not often heard in light opera.

Mr. Montjoy Walker made a decided hit in the comedy role, being encored on a song several times. He seems to unconsciously draw out the mirth and his comedy is easy-going and natural in every respect.

Miss Oakland and Miss Glover received several encores on songs, and also did Miss Godfrey. "Said Pasha" will be presented again tonight and also on Wednesday night, a new opera being presented for Thursday night.

DESECRATE CHURCH.

ST. GEORGE'S EPISCOPAL CONGREGATION ALMOST RUINED BY UNKNOWN MEN.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 2—St. George's Episcopal church for the second time in two years was almost completely destroyed by vandals. Services are only held in the church Sunday evenings, and when it was opened it was seen that vandals had destroyed everything of value and tried to demolish the building by explosion. Vandals had entered the church, set fire to the organ, torn the Bible and hymn books into small bits, pulled down the altar, overturned and destroyed benches, torn Sunday school charts, threw the altar basin in the stove, and after taking down chandeliers, turned on the gas. The last act was probably intended to cause an explosion when the church was lighted in the evening, but the odor of gas penetrated the neighborhood and the wrecking discovered in time.

COAL CROP OUT.

GOOD AND VALUABLE LANDS HAVE BEEN PURCHASED.

Madisonville, Ky., June 2—The Gordon Land company, of this city, which has options on large mining privileges at Bakersport and surrounding that place and also a fee simple title to several hundred acres, are closing up and having transfers of title made to the mineral rights on these lands.

For some time they have been digging coal there and making investigations, all of which have been most satisfactory. Several holes have been drilled and No. 2 coal of a fine grade and quality has been found at depths of 55 and 60 feet from the surface. In some places the coal crops out on the hillside so that ingress could be made to it without sinking a shaft.

IN POLICE COURT.

ERNEST OZMENT WAIVES EXAMINATION AND GOES TO JAIL.

Ernest Ozment, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses and petty larceny, today waived examination and was held to answer in the sum of $300, going to jail. He was arrested at Cairo for stealing a watch and selling it as his own property.

Tandy Reeves, colored, charged with breaking into Former Chief of Police Collins' cabinet at the city hall and stealing several of the carolities, was granted a continuance.

Parks Blackburn was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Robt. Maywood, Jas. Cronin, Frank Smith and John Lee, for sleeping in a box car, were fined $5 and costs.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

TWO MEN KILLED AND ONE WOUNDED BY ASSASSINS.

London, Ky., June 2—John Farmer and a young man named Whittaker were killed near Bernstad, this county. A brother of Whittaker was slightly wounded. The survivor stated that he was riding some distance behind the two men when he heard shots fired. As he came up to where his brother and Farmer lay dead in the road some persons in the bushes near the roadside fired on him, wounding him in the arm. He fired four shots at them and made his escape.

Correct Summer Clothing

The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thin clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and felt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. We show the new Irish Donegal Cloths, Cheviots and Home-spuns in coats and pants for men and young men
